

International Society for Krishna Consciousness
ISKCON PHOENIX

The International Society for Krishna Consciousness (ISKCON), otherwise known as the Hare Krishna movement, includes five hundred major centers, temples and rural communities, nearly one hundred affiliated vegetarian restaurants, thousands of namahattas or local meeting groups, a wide variety of community projects, and millions of congregational members worldwide.

This year, ISKCON celebrates 50 years from its incorporation by our founder acarya, His Divine Grace A. C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupāda in New York City in 1966.

Our society encompasses people with various cultural backgrounds, languages and customs but willing to come together and join hands to help each member of the society and community in general to reach a common goal, a higher platform, a higher taste...Krishna Consciousness.

Seven Purposes of ISKCON

(1) To systematically propagate spiritual knowledge to society at large and to educate all people in the techniques of spiritual life in order to check the imbalance of values in life and to achieve real unity and peace in the world

(2) To propagate a consciousness of Krishna as it is revealed in the Bhagavad-Gita and Srimad Bhagavatam.

(3) To bring the members of the Society together with each other and nearer to Krishna, the prime entity, and thus to develop the idea, within the members, and humanity at large, that each soul is part and parcel of the quality of Godhead (Krishna)

(4) To teach and encourage the Sankirtan movement of congregational chanting of the holy name of God as revealed in the teachings of Lord Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu

(5) To erect for the members, and for society at large, a holy place of transcendental pastimes, dedicated to the personality of Krishna.

(6) To bring the members closer together for the purpose of teaching a simpler and more natural way of life.

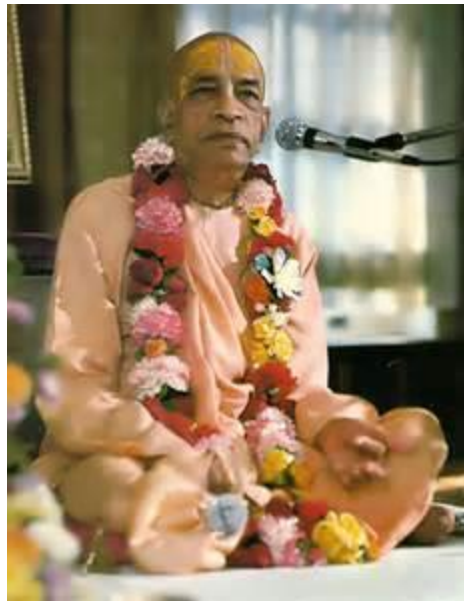

(7) With a view towards achieving the aforementioned purposes, to publish and distribute periodicals, magazines, books and other writings.

Home Programs

These are excellent programs to come together with the congregation and devotees in general and share Krishna Consciousness in a more private and relaxed environment.

The entire family benefits from these programs and include Bhajan/Kirtan/Class/Prasadam.

A host may suggest a book (Bhagavad-Gita, Srimad-Bhagavatam, etc) or a topic (Family, Society, etc) or we may suggest it.

Interested in hosting a program or need more information?

Please contact Premadhatri devi dasi at 480.720-2030 or pddd@radhakrishnaphoenix.org

More Sadhusanga: We pray that we can have the association of senior devotees who can inspire and guide us all. Srila Prabhupada's disciples who can share his teachings, his lessons; who will be willing to help our Yatra to be one of the best spiritual embassies!

Tips

- Always Remember Krishna, Never Forget Krishna
- “Any family engaged in Krishna’s service is living not in this material world. Such a home is considered as Vaikuntha (the spiritual world). That is the verdict of Bhaktivinode Thakura” Srila Prabhupada, 1971
- Our actions, words and thoughts should help us and help others to come closer to Krishna. Say no to prajalpa 😊

“Your love for me will be shown by how much you cooperate”
(Sriila Prabhupada)

Chant and Be Happy

It's never too late or too early to start chanting. If you have been thinking about it, stop thinking and just pick up your beads!
We will be happy to guide you..."one japa at a time"
